

HUNTERDON REVIEW

'Touch'

'Touch', a print by Robin Schwartz, is one of the photographs of the "Portraits of Amelia" exhibit that will run through Sunday, Oct. 16, at the Hunterdon Museum of Art, Lower Center Street, Clinton.

Museum to hold annual 'Art Party' event

CLINTON - The Hunterdon Museum of Art's annual "Art Party" fund-raising event will be held from 6:30 to 11 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 1, at the art museum, Lower Center Street, Clinton.

The event will feature dining, dancing and cocktails on the museum's riverside patio and throughout the galleries. Proceeds from the benefit will support the museum's children's education, exhibition and community outreach programs.

The annual Cornerstone Awards, honoring both an individual and an organization whose commitment has made a significant impact on the arts throughout the region, will be presented to Robert B. Haines and the Rutgers Center for Innovative Print & Paper.

In addition, Clinton Councilwoman Janice

Kovach will be recognized for her role in obtaining a grant from the state Department of Environmental Protection to stabilize the Clinton Mills Dam and Dike.

Music will be performed by the Brazilian band, "Zazueira." A silent auction and chance to win an original work of art by Toshiko Takaazu will also take place.

Two exhibitions of contemporary art will be in the galleries: an exhibition of artist books, "The Elements: Creative Energy," and "Portraits of Amelia: Photographs by Robin Schwartz."

Ticket prices for the Art Party start at $175 per person. For more information, call Karla Stinger, publicity and special events coordinator, at 735-8415 ext. 11.
