See Tschabalala Self: Gut Feelings and Louis Fratino: With Everyone

A force for good painting.

This gallery is on a real roll. After its glowing show of young visionary illuminator Hiba Schahbaz, now come two unknowns with big gulps of talent. Tschabalala Self gives us a Chris Ofili–inflected Garden of Sexy Id in sewn and collaged paintings, while the even younger Louis Fratino brings us succulent, highly structured men-on-men squeezed spaces. —J.S.

Thierry Goldberg Gallery, 103 Norfolk Street, through November 13.
