

M+B

Los Angeles Times

ENTERTAINMENT & ARTS

The newest, coolest L.A. and O.C. museum shows to see in April

BY MATT COOPER | LISTINGS COORDINATOR
APRIL 1, 2022 8 AM PT

Figure 1: Matthew Brandt, Llyn Celyn 13, 2016. Chromogenic print soaked in Lake Vyrnwy water, 20 x 30 inches. Courtesy of the Artist.

M+B

‘Light & Matter: The Art of Matthew Brandt’

A career survey featuring more than 100 photographs and multimedia works is on view April 21 through Sept. 4. Also on view: “Evening Mile: The Paintings of Julika Lackner,” landscape paintings of Southern California at night (through May 1). Forest Lawn Museum, 1712 S. Glendale Ave., Glendale. Open Wednesdays-Sundays. Free.

Figure 2: Matthew Brandt, David 1B, 2020-2022. Marble dust of fallen Michelangelo replica sculpture on roofing paper, 40 ¼ x 51 inches. Courtesy of the Artist.